

DIVING talks

DIVING talks – Portugal 2021 – International Diving Congress
Tróia, October 8 – 10

PRESS RELEASE

DIVING TALKS; (PROBABLY) THE MOST IMPORTANT DIVING EVENT IN 2021

Why?

- The Speakers' panel.

DIVING talks will feature 26 Talks by international keynote speakers: if you put together, in the same space, sharing their experiences divers like Ahmed Gabr, Armando Ribeiro, Belen Andres, Jill Heinerth, Krzysztof Starnawski, Marissa Eckert, Mark Powell, Martyn Farr, Natalie Gibb, Phil Short, Sabine Kerkau, Sami Paakkari, only to name a few, you ~most certainly get the most influential group of speakers for a single event in 2021.

Why?

- The Venue.

DIVING talks is the opportunity to spend three fantastic days at one of the most extraordinary places in Portugal; the Tróia Peninsula.

Tróia Peninsula is a sanctuary in a gigantic dune forming over thousands of years, with the Atlantic Ocean to the west and the Sado estuary to the east. It is a sanctuary for many reasons: for the above and underwater species, for the nature that frames the landscape, and for those going there, attending the talks or for the pleasure of one memorable weekend escapade.

Why?

- Diving.

If you have time and are curious enough, DIVING talks can also be the pretext for the divers wishing to discover Portugal underwater. That's why Diving Talks partnered with Portugal Dive, a boutique dive concierge that organizes dive trips to Portugal; the mainland and in the Azores and Madeira archipelagos.

Diving recreational or technical, you can expect the European Atlantic most transparent waters full of life, schools of fish, the big pelagic, and even monk seals: all that and wrecks, inland caves, you name it, for every type of diver.

Opt to arrive one-week earlier or leave one-week later, and chose the stay and dive program for your type of diving and preferences.

DIVING talks

Why?

- DIVING talks is family/ partner friend.

You don't need to leave your family or partner behind. The DIVING talks assumption is to give your loved one's the reasons for them wanting to come.

If you want to attend, transform this trip into a partner or family trip to Portugal. There are many things they can do while you enjoy the Talks. And there will also be side-events for those that won't attend the Talks.

It is not that you need to have something planned. The peninsula is such a fantastic site to enjoy; there's the beach if you want to relax by the sea, there are trails you can check out, or you can relax by the pool. However, if you want something more, this is what you can expect.

Remember, there's a special ticket for partners. They don't attend the Talks, but they can be with you having lunch (with all of us) at the Venue.
